50X1-HUM

1. The PZPR (United Polish Workers' Party), like other Satellite Communist Parties, is obliged to assist, both spiritually and materially, the Communist cause abroad. In line with this requirement, Poland has alternately aided the Communist movements in East Germany, France, Italy, Greece, Korea, China and possibly other countries. [redacted] Poland's assigned area of responsibility is Italy and it is likely that other Satellite countries have similar charges. This [redacted] does not preclude giving assistance to Communists in other areas for special projects. As an example, [redacted] Poland sent money and food to East Germany to assist Communists who attended the International Youth Conference in Berlin in the summer of 1952. Poland also gave considerable financial aid to the French Communists engaged in the Paris strikes in 1948. 50X1-HUM
2. The assistance given to the French and Italian Communist Parties was, in some respects, a reciprocal arrangement in that these groups were closely tied in with Department VII (Foreign Branch) of the MBP (Ministry of Public Security). Through the large Polish refugee element in Italy and the Polish miners in France, the Polish security services were able to receive much useful intelligence information. UB intelligence queries, one involving General Grzegorz KORCZYNSKI, assistant to GOMULKA and former resident of France, and the other relating to a rumored Trotskyist convention in Paris, were received due to the assistance of French Communists. The closeness of this cooperation was evidenced in the KOMAR trial when ROSEN-ZAWADZKI, 50X1-HUM former Polish Attache (O-2 member) in Italy, admitted transmitting funds to Communists in Italy for intelligence purposes

3. During the 1948 labor strikes in France, branches of the Polish Communist Party conducted an intensive drive to raise funds in behalf of the French Communists. When the drive was completed, General ROMKOWSKI (First Vice-Minister of the MBP) complained that the amounts which had been collected were a pittance compared to the Polish contribution taken from ROMKOWSKI'S special fund.
